

NEW HORIZON TOURS PRESENTS CURIOUS CURAÇAO Nov. 8 - 13, 2023

Air on American Airlines out of LAX and Dulles -See Air itin below

If paradise exists, it's in the Southern Caribbean.

Set your heart on Curaçao. It's all the Island you want with all the space you will need: the unforgettable blend of European and Caribbean flair

Curaçao has over 35 beaches to choose from with many nestled in private coves giving you space to swim, lounge, and stretch out as you please. There are many things that make this island special.

Curaçao is located between the Dutch Caribbean islands, Bonaire and Aruba. The largest member of the ABC Islands, Curaçao stretches for 38 miles east to west. It varies in width from 3 miles to 9 miles and totals 275 square miles in area. For many, Curaçao's location, its 500-year-old multicultural historic background and diversity, its colorful capital Willemstad, its beautiful beaches, underwater world & nature, and its stunning Dutch Caribbean architecture, are more than enough reasons to put Curaçao Island on your list.

Curaçao is a place to be discovered. I could tell you all the below reasons why this island is special but I'd rather you just feel it for yourself.

So slip away to Curaçao, a Caribbean paradise that thrills and inspires.

1. Curaçao is located just outside the hurricane belt.

2. Curaçao is a true Dutch Caribbean Island with lots of history.

In many ways it's very European while very African too. It is a tourist destination for cruise ships and others, but only about 15% of its tourists come from America; it is not all chains and new and shiny and hollow. Tourists can easily mix with the locals, who are kind and friendly. All this makes Curaçao an unusual place compared to many other destinations.

3. Curaçao has the most beautiful capital, Willemstad, of the Caribbean.

Picture an Amsterdam Street, with narrow buildings along a canal. Now redecorate in rainbow colors, and you have an idea of what Willemstad is like. Curaçao's capital is a fascinating town with centuries of Dutch Caribbean history. The city center has been designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In Punda, at the other side of the St. Anna Bay, you'll find the Western Hemisphere's oldest synagogue (1732), the Mikvé Israel-Emanuel Synagogue, the Jewish Cultural Museum.

4. Curaçao's beaches are its best-kept secret.

Unlike most other Caribbean islands, Curaçao does not have long stretched beaches. Curaçao's beaches are smaller beaches, secluded between limestone cliffs. The nicest beaches can be found on the west side of the island. (38 beaches in total).

5. Curaçao has two wonderful National Parks

Curaçao is not only about sun, sea, and sand. If you love nature, a visit to the two National Parks of Curaçao, Christoffel and Shete Boka, is a must and a great way to explore the variety of Curaçao's flora and fauna.

6. Curaçao's rich history comes alive in its stunning architecture which can be seen all over the island

Many Dutch colonists and Jewish settlers became wealthy and built impressive colonial buildings blending Dutch and Spanish colonial styles. Plantation houses and West African style houses (former slave dwellings) are scattered all over the island. Forts were also erected to protect the deep harbor and ports

There is a myriad of optional tour activities planned.
